

Teen Court in collaboration with the Santa Fe Community College

Presents

Pathways: Student Success Program

Monday, June 29, 2015

2:00-3:00pm

The goal, of this program is to provide teens with the opportunity to experience what higher education has to offer and to give them something to look forward to in their future. The program is ideal for teens that have trouble envisioning their future or that lack aspiration to attain their potential goals. The hope is that through this program teens would have the motivation & optimism when it comes to investing in their higher education.

The program is an opportunity to explore what the Santa Fe Community College has to offer you!

- Dual-Credit Program
- Vocational Programs
