Restorative Justice/Mediation

Restorative justice is a response to crime that focuses on restoring the loss suffered by victims, holding offenders accountable for the harm they have caused, and building peace within communities.

- ❖ Is a different way of thinking about crime and our response to crime
- ❖ Focuses on the harm caused by crime: repairing the harm done to victims and reducing future harm by preventing crime
- ❖ Requires offenders to take responsibility for their actions and for the harm they have caused
- ❖ Is achieved through a co-operative effort by communities and the government

This program is facilitated by Mary Louise Romero. You will be contacted by the facilitator and will be notified of when the circle will take place.
