JENNIFER WILSON (Chief Deputy Clerk): It's up to you. I'm happy to do one if that's what you'd like. Yeah, because I wasn't sure if I heard all five.

2. Miscellaneous Action Item

A. Request Approval of a Letter to the New Mexico Department of Transportation Amending the Board's Requested Designation of a Portion of New Mexico 41 from "Survivors' Memorial Highway" to "Survivors' Memorial Way." (Commissioner Camilla Bustamante)

COMMISSIONER HUGHES: Okay. Miscellaneous action item request. Approval of a letter to the New Mexico Department of Transportation amending the Board's requested designation of a portion of New Mexico Highway 14 from Survivors of the Memorial Highway to Survivors of Memorial Way. Commissioner Bustamante?

COMMISSIONER BUSTAMANTE: Thank you, Interim Chair of Sorts Commissioner Hughes and members. Thank you for being present for today's meeting. We have support to move forward with the request that we've put in for the naming of New Mexico 41. Originally in our request, we asked for Survivors' Memorial Highway, and the feedback from the Department of Transportation is that if we put highway, it becomes a federal conversation because the Federal Government is largely responsible for the highways, and this is New Mexico 41, a road. So, the survivors who have been working with us both virtually and in person have asked to change it to Survivors' Memorial Way, keeping the term memorial. That was part of the discussion of memorial, has anyone died there? Respectfully, we want to keep memorial. There have been, right now, two known suicides as a result of the stuff that the Epstein Estate was doing. Not his estate, but him and his team. So, the ask is to send a letter to Survivors' Memorial Way so that this can be heard in the October meeting. Again, I'm grateful for your special presence here so we can make that deadline. Thank you. Are there any questions?

SFC CLERK RECORDED 10/14/2026

COMMISSIONER HUGHES: Any questions?

COMMISSIONER CACARI STONE: Yes, I have my hand up, Chair.

COMMISSIONER HUGHES: Alright, go ahead, Commissioner Cacari Stone.

COMMISSIONER CACARI STONE: Thank you. We appreciate the work here, Commissioner Bustamante, and it totally makes sense to pivot and to align effort so we can keep this moving forward. I fully support this renaming and nomenclature in the way that we've been provided feedback by Department of Transportation. So, thank you.

COMMISSIONER BUSTAMANTE: Thank you.

COMMISSIONER HUGHES: Thank you. Any other comments?

COMMISSIONER ADAM JOHNSON: Chair?

COMMISSIONER HUGHES: Was that Commissioner...

COMMISSIONER BUSTAMANTE: Johnson.

COMMISSIONER HUGHES: ...Johnson?

COMMISSIONER JOHNSON: Commissioner Johnson.

COMMISSIONER HUGHES: Yes, go ahead.

COMMISSIONER JOHNSON: I'll be brief because I am in public, but this is a public meeting. I want to thank you, Commissioner Bustamante, for working on this and I fully understand why we are adjusting the language a little bit. I just want to indicate my support for it, and appreciate everyone being here. Thank you.

COMMISSIONER BUSTAMANTE: Thank you.

COMMISSIONER HUGHES: Okay, any other comments? I would just...

COMMISSIONER CHAIR JUSTIN GREENE: Commissioner Hughes, I will.

Yes, thank you. Again, reiterating what everybody has said, you know, thank you for the persistence by Commissioner Bustamante to keep this moving and not letting it get derailed. So, yes, this, you know, sometimes we have to make it minor adjustments, and we can't let these things slip through the cracks. So, thank you so much.

COMMISSIONER BUSTAMANTE: Thank you. Again, thank you all for your support and being here. It matters a lot.

COMMISSIONER HUGHES: Okay, and I agree with all that's been said and I agree with the letter. Would you like to make a motion Commissioner Bustamante?

COMMISSIONER BUSTAMANTE: I'd like to make a motion to approve the letter to the New Mexico Department of Transportation amending the Board's original request for the designation of New Mexico 41 as Survivors' Memorial Highway to Survivors' Memorial Way.

SFC CLERK RECORDED 10/14/2026
