RE: A Proclamation to Establishing the Month of April 2016 as National County Government Month

Background and Summary

National County Government Month (NCGM) is an annual celebration of county government held each April by counties across the nation to raise public awareness and understanding about the roles and responsibilities of county government. The theme for this year is "Safe and Secure Counties."

The National Association of Counties (NACo) has been encouraging counties across the country to actively promote county government programs and services since 1991.

Staff Recommendation

It is recommended that this resolution be passed in order to support the initiatives of the National Association of Counties. In addition, passage would highlight effective programs and raise public awareness and understanding about the various services that Santa Fe County provides to the community.

SANTA FE COUNTY PROCLAMATION
THE BOARD OF COUNTY COMMISSIONERS OF SANTA FE COUNTY

PROCLAIMING THE MONTH OF APRIL 2016 AS NATIONAL COUNTY GOVERNMENT MONTH

WHEREAS, the nation's 3,069 counties serving more than 300 million Americans provide essential services to create healthy, safe, vibrant and economically resilient communities; and

WHEREAS, Santa Fe County and all counties take pride in our responsibility to protect and enhance the health, well-being and safety of our residents in efficient and cost-effective ways; and

WHEREAS, through National Association of Counties (NACo) President Sallie Clark's "Safe and Secure Counties" initiative, NACo is encouraging counties to focus on strengthening the safety and security of their communities; and

WHEREAS, in order to remain healthy, vibrant, safe, and economically competitive, America's counties provide public health, justice, emergency management, and economic services that play a key role in everything from residents' daily health to disaster response; and

WHEREAS, each year since 1991, the NACo has encouraged counties across the country to actively promote programs and services to the public we serve; and

WHEREAS, Santa Fe County takes special pride in the accomplishments that have been made in protecting the safety of the public, preserving public health and well-being and promoting the local economy.

NOW THEREFORE, BE IT PROCLAIMED by the Board of County Commissioners of Santa Fe County that April 2016 is:

"National County Government Month"

BE IT FURTHER PROCLAIMED that all county officials, employees, schools, and residents are encouraged to participate in county government celebration activities.

RE: Presentation regarding the Albuquerque/Bernalillo County Behavioral Health task force process and outcomes by Andy Vallejos. (County Manager's Office/Tony Flores)

BACKGROUND :

This presentation will explain the collaborative efforts that Bernalillo County and the City of Albuquerque have employed via a task force to regionally address behavioral health, which includes the issues of homelessness, mental health, and substance abuse in the Albuquerque/Bernalillo County region. This Task Force included a variety of stakeholder representatives, including elected officials, consumers, service providers, funders, insurers, advocates, crises response and corrections.

This information will help the Commission to determine whether Santa Fe County would like to approach the matter in a similar way or would like to utilize some important features of the Albuquerque/Bernalillo model.
