Re: New Mexico State Senate District 39 Vacancy - Letter of Intent

Attn: Tony Flores, Deputy County Manager, 102 Grant Ave. Santa Fe NM 87504

I am honored to put my name forth, as an applicant for the vacancy of the New Mexico State Senate Seat in District 39. As a most recent and former candidate in this District, I am keenly aware of the needs of its families, businesses and economies. With two years to go in a term left unfulfilled, someone with strong leadership skills must be able to step in, and immediately hit the ground running. One does not need to have ever held office, to accomplish this for the people of District 39. In fact, I believe this to be one of my greatest strengths over all other applicants. Not ever holding office. I am not a politician, but an average citizen who deeply cares about moving New Mexico forward, can work with all sides, and one from a generation who rarely takes the initiative to do so. This must change with your vote.

Not only am I qualified with an Executive MBA from Baylor University, and a resume that explains the various leadership roles I have had in my professional career, but I am also proud to be from one of the founding families in the great State of New Mexico. The Castellano family has a longstanding tradition of public service, and giving back to our communities. With a father Joe Cruz Castellano Jr. (in the 1970s), who was the youngest DA in the US, and later a NM District Judge, to a mother Bea Castellano, who was a political trailblazer for women in the 1980s, and the first woman to run for NM Attorney General (then later ran the NM State Democratic Party), it has always been in my blood, and been proud to be a part of the political process of this great state. Therefore, in 2012, I decided to run for this District's State Senate Seat. As a mother of young children and business woman, I wanted to be the next generation who helped move New Mexico forward on many levels; educationally, economically, environmentally, for our elders and veterans.

While there are many qualified applicants putting stepping forward for this leadership role, I believe I would have the BEST chance at a future retention race after the term expires, because of the six county base of support I already have. Many supporters from across this District, have called me to step forward, because they know I understand their county's needs. As a small business owner and managing partner of Christine's Bridal & Formal Wear (the oldest and longest privately run Bridal business in New Mexico – 29 years), I believe we need more Small Business women in the New Mexico State Senate, and know at this time, I am the leader to represent this District. With a strong focus on Education, this state will move forward with jobs. With increased jobs, comes an increase in prosperity for all of our families in New Mexico.

I respectfully ask, that you to put my name forth to our NM Governor for the vacancy of New Mexico State Senate Seat District 39, and appreciate your consideration.

Respectfully,

Nicole Castellano
