ANNIVERSARY OF EARTH DAY

WHEREAS, April 22, 2020, marks the fiftieth year anniversary of Earth Day; and

WHEREAS, the first Earth Day was celebrated on April 22, 1970, as a unified response to an environment in crisis; and

WHEREAS, the original Earth Day Proclamation, written by John McConnell, stated “Planet Earth is facing a grave crisis which only the people of Earth can resolve, and the delicate balances of nature, essential for our survival, can only be saved through a global effort, involving all of us”; and

WHEREAS, on the first Earth Day 20 million Americans – 10% of the U.S. population - took to the streets in hundreds of cities and college campuses to protest environmental ignorance and demand a new way forward for our planet; and

WHEREAS, the first Earth Day is credited with kicking off the “environmental decade with a bang”, launching the modern environmental movement, including the passage of landmark environmental laws in the United States such as the Clean Air Act, Water Quality Improvement Act, and Endangered Species Acts as well as the creation of the Environmental Protection Agency (EPA); and

WHEREAS, Earth Day continues to hold major national and international significance; in 2016, the United Nations chose Earth Day as the day when the historic Paris Agreement on climate change was signed, and in 2020, the global focus is “Climate Action”; and

WHEREAS, the County supports policies and implemented initiatives protective of land, air, and water, including the Sustainable Growth Management Plan, the Sustainable Land Development Code, the County’s Food Plan, The County’s Health Action Plan and the Economic Development Plan that sustain local agriculture and ranching, create open space, oppose wildlife trapping, support carbon pricing, reduce waste, promote energy efficiency, and seek clean renewable energy; and

WHEREAS, the County wishes to continue to demonstrate its commitment to restoring open space, nurturing vibrant plant communities, providing wildlife habitat, developing healthy soils, protecting surface and groundwater, and maintaining good air quality; and
