RESOLUTION NO. 2026 - Q13

A RESOLUTION IN SUPPORT OF THE CAMINO REAL DE TIERRA ADENTRO INSCRIPTION ON THE WORLD HERITAGE LIST

---

WHEREAS, the Camino Real de Tierra Adentro (hereafter referred to as the Camino) is a 2,560-kilometer (1,600-mile) cultural route that originated in Mexico City and terminated at San Juan de los Caballeros, now known as Ohkay Owingeh, in present-day New Mexico, United States; and

WHEREAS, the Camino served as the primary artery of cultural, economic, religious, and administrative exchange between the core of New Spain and its northern frontier from the 16th through the 19th centuries; and

WHEREAS, the United Mexican States has successfully nominated and had listed fifty-five (55) properties along the southern three-quarters of the Camino – stretching from Mexico City to Valle de Allende in Chihuahua, Mexico – for inscription on the World Heritage List as the “Camino Real de Tierra Adentro”; and

WHEREAS, the Mexican nomination dossier recognizes that the northernmost segment of the Camino falls within the United States; and

WHEREAS, the United States portion of the Camino includes a rich and distinct array of historic missions, churches, plazas, historic road segments, cultural landscapes, and settlements; and

WHEREAS, the Mexican nomination states that the representative sites within the United States “will be proposed as an extension of this property when the North American Government believes it convenient; and

WHEREAS, the following properties in the United States are being considered for inclusion in the existing Camino Real de Tierra Adentro World Heritage designation;

1. San Elizario Historic District (Owners: City of San Elizario, El Paso Catholic Diocese)
2. La Purísima Socorro Mission (Owner: El Paso Catholic Diocese)
