

Camilla Brom

Exhibit 36

Santa Fe County Zoning Hub Interactive Map; Turquoise Trail Environment Protection Zone

Overlay District(s):☒  Turquoise Trail Environment Protection ZoneHide DescriptionPurpose.

Some of the County's most significant resources are the views from the Turquoise Trail National Scenic Byway. The Turquoise Trail National Scenic Byway was forged centuries ago by Native Americans, miners and Spanish Conquistadores. The character of rural and scenic highway corridors should be preserved and protected as an important resource.

Applicability.

The Turquoise Trail Environmental and Resource Protection Overlay (TT-OERP) is a segment of the Turquoise Trail National Scenic Byway on State Road 14 that extends one thousand (1,000) feet on either side of the centerline of SR 14 and is identified on the Zoning Map.

See § 8.1147 Turquoise Trail Environmental and Resource Protection Overlay (TT-OERP) for more detailed information on this district overlay.

Overlay Districts

Check All

- ☐ Airport Noise Overlay (O-AN)
- ☐ Rural Commercial (O-RC)
- ☒ Turquoise Trail Environment Protection Zone

Show Description
Show Description
Hide Description

Purpose

Some of the County's most significant resources are the views from the Turquoise Trail National Scenic Byway. The Turquoise Trail National Scenic Byway was forged centuries ago by Native Americans, miners and Spanish Conquistadores. The character of rural and scenic highway corridors should be preserved and protected as an important resource.

Applicability

The Turquoise Trail Environmental and Resource Protection Overlay (TT-OERP) is a segment of the Turquoise Trail National Scenic Byway on State Road 14 that extends one thousand (1,000) feet on either side of the centerline of SR 14 and is identified on the Zoning Map.

See § 8 1147 Turquoise Trail Environmental and Resource Protection Overlay (TT-OERP) for more detailed information on this district overlay

