

You Live in a High Fire Risk Area

Extreme weather conditions pose the threat of wildfires. To help prevent damaged power lines from contributing to wildfires, a Public Safety Power Shutoff (PSPS) may occur.

If extreme weather conditions pose the threat of a wildfire, it may force a Public Safety Power Shutoff (PSPS), which means that you will be without power until it can be safely restored.

Scan the QR code or visit pnm.com/wildfire-safety to learn more.

Learn More About Wildfire Safety

Be prepared for a Public Safety Power Shutoff (PSPS)

Visit My Account on PNM.com to update your contact details.
Sign up for alerts by texting #ALERT to 78766 from your mobile phone.
Prepare an emergency kit with essential items such as medications, medical supplies, flashlights, batteries, battery or crank radio, non-perishable food, water, and important documents.

Learn More About Wildfire Safety

Main Offices
414 Silver Ave. SW
Albuquerque, NM 87102

PRESORTED
STANDARD
US POSTAGE
PAID
PHOENIX, AZ
PERMIT NO. 329

AUTO5-DIGIT 87507
37563 B1 T23 P1
RUSSELL COOPER-MEAD
2 MARIPOSA RD
SANTA FE NM 87508-8729

