SANTA FE COUNTY COMMUNITY SERVICES DEPARTMENT

The Santa Fe County Community Services Department includes the following programs:

The Santa Fe County Health Care Assistance Program provides support for health care for the indigent, as well as contractual projects to support the priorities of the Health Action Plan. Santa Fe County Connect, an Accountable Health Community model, addresses the needs of individuals by connecting them with the clinical care and community services they need to stay healthy, leading to improved community health. For more information, contact: (505) 992-9849 or visit our website, https://www.santafecountynm.gov/community_services/hhsd.

Santa Fe County Senior Services aims to promote and enhance the physical, intellectual and social well-being of seniors living in Santa Fe County while providing many opportunities for creativity, learning and socialization. The Senior Services Program offers a wide range of quality programs and services to residents of Santa Fe County through County operated Senior Centers including congregate meals, Meals on Wheels and transportation services.

Senior center activity information contact:

Chimayo Senior Center: (505) 351-4686

Santa Cruz Senior Center: (505) 753-8598

Edgewood Senior Center: (505) 281-2515

El Rancho Senior Center: (505) 455-2195

Eldorado Senior Center: (505) 466-1039

Seniors interested in receiving home delivered meals (Meals on Wheels) should call: (505) 992-3069.

For additional information or to schedule transportation please call (505) 992-3069.

The Santa Fe County DWI program promotes the safety of the people in Santa Fe County by developing and implementing programs to prevent or reduce the incidence of DWI, alcoholism, and alcohol and other drug abuse in Santa Fe County. For more information, contact:

(505) 992-9840.

Santa Fe County Teen Court serves as a community-based intervention and diversion program designed to provide an alternative response for the juvenile justice system. Teen Court is a nationally recognized early intervention and restorative justice program for juveniles (ages 12-17) and has been serving teens and families in our community since 1994. For more information, contact: (505) 995-9555.

Additional Santa Fe County Programs that are part of Santa Fe County Connect:

The Santa Fe County Adult Correctional Facility is committed to creating a safe and secure environment for the citizens of Santa Fe County and all others entrusted in our custody. A Re-entry team was developed in recent years to assist and support inmates when being release from our facility. For more information, contact: (505) 471-4941.

The Santa Fe County Housing Authority remains one of the largest landlords in Santa Fe. The Housing Authority currently manages 200 public housing units and 241 Housing Choice Vouchers (previously called Section 8). The Housing Authority also manages a Housing Choice Voucher Homeownership Program, Family Self-Sufficiency Program (FSS), and the Capital Fund Program (CFP). For more information, contact: (505) 992-3060.

Services listed in this resource directory, to the best of our knowledge, are limited to agencies that have a non-profit status or accept Medicaid. Inclusion in this directory is not an endorsement. Clients are urged to formulate their individual criteria for selection of service providers.

This resource directory is produced in partnership with SHARE New Mexico, a community information website at ShareNM.org. We welcome your help in keeping this resource directory updated. To update your organization's information or to report other updates, please contact SHARE New Mexico at info@ShareNM.org

Santa Fe County Connect is a network of navigators at clinics, city and county programs, and community organizations who link people to services and resources for health and well-being. We or someone we know are one circumstance from benefitting from Santa Fe County Connect.
