Santa Fe County Needs Volunteer Community Members for Multiple Community Center Trustee(s)

Santa Fe, NM – August 25, 2021 - Santa Fe County is currently looking for residents to volunteer as Trustee(s) of the following Community Centers: Bennie J. Chavez (Chimayo), Cundiyo, Nambe, El Rancho, Rio En Medio, La Cienega, Nancy Rodriguez (Agua Fria) and Max Coll Corridor (Eldorado).

Trustees work with County staff to schedule, process and calendar events and take on other responsibilities associated with running the Centers. Duties of Trustee(s) are to ensure that each facility is well operated for the benefit of each community and that individuals or entities seeking to utilize a Center completes the Santa Fe County Facility Use Application before the facility is reserved.

The Board of County Commission (BCC) will appoint one or more residents of Santa Fe County to serve as Trustee(s) at each Center to assist the Community Services Department in the operation of these Centers.

Trustees shall abide by all Resolution(s), policies and procedures applicable to the Center(s) adopted by the BCC and Santa Fe County Community Services Department.

Anyone interested shall submit an original Letter of Interest and contact Estrella Martinez for the following forms: Questionnaire form, Inquiry Authorization Release form, Mentorship Volunteer Request form, Conflict of Interest form.
