

30x30

SANTA FE COUNTY

SANTA FE COUNTY PROGRESS REPORT, FISCAL YEAR 2021

Conserving 30% of Santa Fe County's Land and Water by 2030

This year, with the help of community volunteers, Santa Fe County planted native and drought tolerant trees and shrubs across eight locations.

12
ACRES
CONSERVED

1,448
TREES & SHRUBS PLANTED

158
VOLUNTEERS

PLANTING & RESTORATION
LOCATIONS

Los Potreritos
Open Space

Pojoaque
Recreation Complex

Santa Fe
River

Hondo
Fire Station

Thornton Ranch
Open Space

Ortiz Mountains
Open Space

Edgewood
Senior Center

SANTA FE COUNTY

Santa Fe
County manages:

10.3
SQUARE MILES OF OPEN SPACE

60
MILES OF TRAILS

18
PARKS

As part of 30x30,
the County plans
to enhance wildlife habitat, store more
carbon in the land,
and increase access to nature in the

1,911 SQUARE MILES
of land in Santa Fe County.

Santa Fe County Commissioners voted to officially support the 30x30 initiative in December 2020 with the passage of Resolution 2020-93. Local partners include:

