

ALERT Santa Fe

Alert Santa Fe is the official emergency notification system used by the City and County of Santa Fe to communicate with residents during emergencies. This system is provided by Rave Mobile Safety and powered by Smart911 to send notifications by phone, email and text to keep citizens informed of emergencies.

Sign up for Alerts And Always Be Informed

Powered by

Smart911®

- Emergency Notifications - Urgent, must-know information that may require action such as taking shelter.
- Community Wildfire Information - Information regarding current wildfires, wildfire education, prescribed burns, and smoke impacts within the City of Santa Fe and Santa Fe County.
- Emergency Preparedness Information - Receive emergency preparedness tips, and tricks as well as periodic emergency preparedness events.
- Law Enforcement Community Information - Receive information regarding missing persons, criminal activity, and safety information.
- Severe Weather - Warnings issued by the National Weather Service.
- Special Event Information - Community events that may affect travel, business activity, and safety.
- Transportation Disruptions - Impacts to transportation services and routes including major road closures or events that affect travel within the City and County.
- Utility Service Disruptions - Impacts to City of Santa Fe water, wastewater, garbage and recycling services.
- Code Blue - A Code Blue is enacted when the National Weather Service forecasts temperatures less than 20* F.

Signing up is as easy as 1-2-3!

1-Scan the QR code above or visit www.smart911.com to get started.

2-Create your profile with a user ID and password.

3-Add your information. Once your account is set up, you can update and manage your details anytime.