County Clerk Katharine E. Clark Announces Expanded Early Voting

Santa Fe – After two weeks of voting at the Clerk's Office, voting has expanded to several additional locations throughout Santa Fe County. These are Voting Convenience Centers, meaning that as long as a voter lives in Santa Fe County, they are eligible to vote at any of these sites.

Clerk Clark emphasized voter enthusiasm, "in addition to the nearly 2000 voters who have voted in person, we have over 5000 absentee ballot requests. I am excited to see that voters are showing up early in various ways for these local elections. Our office makes it easy for voters to avoid 'last-minute' voting on Election Day."

Expanded Early Voting sites are open Tuesday - Friday 11am - 7pm, and Saturdays 10am to 6pm. Find more information about these locations here: SantaFe.vote/pollinglocations
