Santa Fe County Clerk Katharine E. Clark Advises What to Expect on Election Day

Santa Fe – As the Primary Election enters its final hours, Santa Fe County Clerk Katharine E. Clark reports that absentee ballot returns and early voting figures are once again outpacing those of every large county in the state. Polling locations are open until 7:00 PM, allowing voters to register and vote at any polling place today.

“We had smooth early voting and absentee voting and are hoping to see a large turnout for Election Day;” said Clark, “We are ready to assist voters at 33 polling sites around the county. Even if you are not registered, folks can still vote using same-day registration.”

Polling Location Information and Wait Times

Voters can cast their ballots at any of the 33 polling locations and view real-time wait times for all polling sites at SantaFe.vote. For those seeking shorter wait times, there are several nearby alternatives to busier sites such as Fairgrounds and Christian Life Church. Polls will remain open from 7:00 AM to 7:00 PM, and anyone in line by that time will be allowed to vote.

Absentee Ballots

Absentee ballots must reach the Clerk's Office by 7:00 PM to be counted. Voters can track the status of their absentee ballot at SantaFe.vote. If you haven't submitted your ballot yet, do not mail it; instead, use an official dropbox or polling location. All locations are listed on our website.

Same-Day Registration

Santa Fe County offers same-day registration at all polling sites. To register today, simply provide a photo ID with the correct address or a photo ID along with any document that verifies your name and address.
