Santa Fe County Clerk's Office Invites Local Students to Design Official Election Stickers

Santa Fe County, NM — The Santa Fe County Clerk's Office is excited to announce the launch of its "I Voted" Sticker Design Contest, inviting young artists from across Santa Fe County to help design the next generation of official election stickers. Open to Santa Fe County students (K-12), this contest offers an opportunity to combine creativity and civic engagement. Winning designs will be printed and distributed during upcoming elections as official "I Voted", "Future Voter", or "First-Time Voter" stickers. These stickers will be shared with voters and used in outreach efforts to celebrate and encourage participation in the democratic process.

"We are always looking for ways to involve young people in elections and help build lifelong civic habits," said Santa Fe County Clerk Katharine E. Clark. "This contest gives students a chance to put their creativity to work in a meaningful way, and to see their artwork become part of our community's voting experience."

How to Enter:

- Submit your original sticker design by September 8, 2025.
- Shape: Circle, designed for a 3-inch round sticker.
- File formats accepted: JPG, PNG, PDF, AI, or EPS.
- Submit online here!

Contest Details:

- Eligible participants must be Santa Fe County students (K-12).
- Only original artwork will be accepted.
- The Clerk's Office will review submissions, and the public will use Ranked Choice Voting to select three winning designs.
- Winning designs will be featured on the Santa Fe County Clerk's website, social media channels, and printed as official stickers for upcoming elections.

The contest is part of the Clerk's Office's broader efforts to engage young residents in elections through programs like Kids Vote and Democracy101, which gives students hands-on experience with civic participation.
