- A. If an A.C.O. finds that a horse has been abused by being untreated for serious medical or health problems, or by being seriously underfed to such an extent that its backbone is visible through its skin, then an A.C.O. shall cite the owner under Article 6 of this Ordinance and may, in his discretion, allow a responsible person who is knowledgeable in horse care and able to provide suitable food, water and veterinary care (hereinafter, "caretaker"), while in the presence of the A.C.O., to temporarily take custody of the horse, in order to provide care and maintenance for the horse, provided:
  - 1. The caretaker shall provide transportation for the horse from the site where the horse is found to the caretaker's premises; and
  - 2. The caretaker shall provide adequate food, shelter and veterinary care for the horse; and
  - 3. The caretaker agrees to abide by any court order regarding the custody and ownership of the horse.
- B. The owner of such an abused horse who has been temporarily deprived of the custody of his horse may, at the hearing on the issue of his citation for abuse, petition the Court for the return of his horse. Until such a judicial determination, the horse shall remain in the custody of the caretaker, and the owner be assessed a reasonable fee for the transportation of the horse to the caretaker's premises, plus $10 per day boarding charge, for each day or part thereof that the horse remains on the caretaker's premises. Such amount can be awarded by a court to the caretaker.
- C. If the owner does not pay all fines and charges, including those imposed by a Court under this Section 3-5, within five (5) days of imposition, then the horse shall be deemed forfeited by the owner, and title and ownership shall vest in the caretaker.

ARTICLE 4: OWNER'S DUTIES

4-1 RABIES VACCINATION

- A. It is the duty of all persons owning a cat or dog or any members of the canine or feline family which an employee of an animal control shelter or the animal control division is permitted to vaccinate over the age of three, (3) months to have such animal vaccinated against rabies. The rabies vaccination shall be given in amounts sufficient to provide immunity from rabies for one (1) year and be administered by a licensed veterinarian. A certificate or tag from a licensed veterinarian shall be evidence of vaccination. A graduate veterinarian may vaccinate his own dog or cat.
- B. A veterinarian administering any rabies vaccine to any animal shall issue to the owner of the animal a numbered vaccination certificate or tag which shall contain the name and address of the owner of the animal, a description of the animal vaccinated, the date of the vaccination and the expiration date of the period of immunity.
- C. It is unlawful for the owner of any dog, cat, or other members of the canine or feline family to fail to exhibit a certificate or tag of vaccination, upon demand, to any Sheriff's deputy or Animal Control Officer.

4-2 RABID ANIMAL

Any animal that has rabies or shows signs of having rabies, and any animal bitten by another animal afflicted by rabies, or that has been exposed to such a rabid animal, shall be confined at once in a secure place by the owner. A person who knows or has reason to know that any animal is infected with rabies or an unvaccinated animal has been exposed to rabies shall immediately notify an Animal Control Officer of the place where the animal is confined or can be found. The owner of said animal shall surrender said animal to the Animal Control Officer upon demand. The A.C.O. shall then deal with the rabid animal pursuant to state law. A vaccinated animal exposed to rabies may be required to be confined on the owner's premises for a minimum of fourteen (14) days, until it is determined by an A.C.O. that there are no symptoms of rabies.

4-3 ANIMAL BITING A PERSON

- A. The owner of an animal that bites a person and the person bitten by an animal shall both report that occurrence to an Animal Control Officer within twenty-four (24) hours of the occurrence. The owner of an animal that bites a person shall surrender said animal to an Animal Control Officer to impound said animal for a period of observation deemed reasonably necessary by the Animal Control Officer. A vaccinated animal may be confined on its owner's premises during this time of observation.
- B. The owner of the animal shall bear the cost of confinement. The A.C.O. may consent to confinement on the owner's premises, but only if the owner can produce evidence of a current rabies vaccination at the time the bite was inflicted. The premises where the home confinement is to occur shall be inspected and approved for such purposes by the A.C.O. A person who has custody of an animal that has bitten a person shall immediately notify the Animal Control Officer, if the animal shows signs of sickness, or abnormal behavior.

- C. A physician who renders treatment to a person bitten by an animal shall report the fact that he has rendered such treatment to an Animal Control Officer within twenty-four (24) hours of his first professional attendance to the bite wound. The physician shall report the name, sex, and address of the person bitten as well as the type and location of the bite. The physician shall give the name and address of the owner or the animal that inflicted the bite, if known, and other facts that may assist the Animal Control Officer in ascertaining the immunization status of the animal.

4-4 RESTRAINT OF ANIMALS

- A. All persons owning or having charge, custody, or control of any animal shall keep such animal restrained to prevent damage or harm to people and property. Violation of this Section will subject said owner or keeper to a fine as set forth in Appendix A.
- B. When a dog is off its owner's premises, It must be under leash or under control of the owner. "Control" includes a dog, who responds to sound commands or its owner to come to its owner on command. The owner of a dog shall not allow it to run at large or create a nuisance on another's property, be it public or private, including entering onto-lawns, driveways, walk-ways, places of recreation, or amusement parks. The term "nuisance" shall include defecation or urination, Violation of this Section will subject said owner or keeper to a fine as set forth in Appendix A.
- C. Any animal trespassing upon private or public property shall be deemed prima facie not to be under the immediate control of the owner or his designee and the owner shall be in violation of Sections 4-4A and 4-4B, and subject to penalties, pursuant to Appendix A.

4-5 LICENSE REQUIREMENTS

- A. Licensing Required: Any person keeping, harboring, or maintaining any dog over three (3) months of age within the County shall obtain a license from the Animal Control Division for each such dog. The A.C.O. shall keep a record of all licenses issued and shall issue a tag for each license granted. A current rabies vaccination certificate shall be presented at the time of the application for the license. Licenses shall be issued annually, and shall be renewable during the anniversary month of the originally issued license, and shall expire on the last day of the anniversary month.
- B. To encourage the alteration of dogs, the licensing fee for unaltered animals shall be higher than for altered animals.

- C. Affixing Tags: A current license tag or number shall be affixed to the licensed dog at all times and in a reasonable manner.
- D. License Fee Schedule: See Appendix A.
- E. Duplicate (replacement) tag fee: See Appendix A.
- F. Exemptions:
  - (1) Dogs belonging to non-residents, who keep dogs within the confines or the boundaries of the County for less than ninety (90) consecutive days shall be exempt from this Section, provided, however, that all other provisions of this Ordinance are complied with.
  - (2) Guide dogs will be licensed by the County at no charge to the legally blind and/or deaf, or to a handicapped or disabled person who has a current prescription from a licensed physician prescribing such animal use.
- G. Penalty: Any person violating any of the provisions of this article shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and, upon conviction, shall be punished by incarceration and/or by a fine as set forth in Appendix A.

ARTICLE 5: PROHIBITED ACTIVITIES

5-1 DOGS RUNNING AT LARGE

Any dog permitted to run at large in violation of this Section is declared to be a nuisance, a menace to the public health and safety, and may be taken up and impounded as provided in Section 3-1, et seq. In addition, its owner shall be subject, to the penalties set forth in Appendix A.

5-2 ANIMALS ON UNENCLOSED PREMISES; CHAINED ANIMALS

- A. It is unlawful for any person to chain or stake any animal in a cruel or inhumane manner. Where circumstances warrant and no other alternative exits for confining an animal on its owner’s property, a rope, cable, or chain may be used to restrain the animal, provided the following criteria are met:
  - 1. The rope, chain, or cable must be affixed to the animal by use of a non-abrasive, comfortably fitted collar or harness.
  - 2. The rope, chain or cable must be at least twelve (12) feet in length unless such length allows the animal to enter onto another’s property, in which case the chain shall be no less than eight (8) feet in length. The chain must be unobstructed by objects which might cause the animal to become entangled.
  - 3. The animal must have easy and constant access to adequate shelter, food and potable water.
  - 4. The area where the animal is confined must be kept free of garbage, feces, or other debris which may endanger the animal’s health and safety.
  - 5. The area where the animal is confined must be kept free of insect infestation such as ant hills, wasp nests, flea, tick, and maggot infestations.

- 6. The animal must be tied reasonably near the owner’s residence or workplace and must not be left unattended for longer than a twelve (12) hour period.
- B. Invisible fencing. Where an owner maintains an invisible fence, i.e., an electrical device designed to contain animals wearing an appropriate collar within a confined area, which is in operation at all times that a dog is outdoors on the owner’s premises, and within the invisible fencing, and where each owner’s dog on the premises wears the applicable collar, then the provisions of Section 5-2A shall not apply, provided that the invisible fence does, in fact, retain the dog on the owner’s premises.
- C. Violations of these requirements will constitute an act of neglect/cruelty and will subject the animal to immediate impoundment and penalties to the owner as set forth in Appendix A.

5-3 ANIMALS TRANSPORTED OR LEFT IN VEHICLES

It is unlawful for any person to carry any animal in or upon any vehicle in a cruel, inhumane, or unsafe manner. No person shall keep or transport an animal in the bed of a pick-up truck unless the animal is properly restrained in a humane and safe manner to prevent the animal from leaving the confines of the bed of the truck. No person shall leave an animal in a closed vehicle for any length of time reasonably concluded to be dangerous to the health or safety the animal. During hot weather conditions, an A.C.O. or Sheriff’s deputy may immediately remove an animal from a vehicle and take it into protective custody, at the cost assessed to the owner. Violations of this Section will constitute an act of cruelty/neglect and will subject the owner to the penalties set forth in Appendix A.

5-4 VICIOUS ANIMALS

It is unlawful for any person to keep or harbor a known vicious animal in the County. Any attack by a vicious animal or any animal displaying traits of a vicious animal may be repelled by the use of reasonable force. After a judicial determination that an animal is vicious, the court having jurisdiction over the enforcement of this Ordinance, upon hearing of such complaint, may, in addition to any fine or imprisonment which may be imposed for violation hereof, order the Animal Control Officer to have such animal destroyed as set forth in Section 3-4 or this Ordinance.

5-5 ANIMAL DISTURBING THE PEACE

- A. It is unlawful for any owner to allow any of his animals to persistently or continuously bark, howl or make noise common to their species or otherwise disturb the peace and quiet of the inhabitants of the County, or to keep or maintain on his premises any animal in such a manner as to disturb others by noxious or offensive odors, or otherwise endanger the health, safety, and welfare of the inhabitants of the County.

- B. Violations of this Section shall constitute a nuisance and shall a subject the owner to the penalties set forth in Appendix A.

The animal may, not be returned to its owner before a hearing in Magistrate Court if, in the opinion on of the A.C.O., the harm to the animal is severe and likely to recur.
- C. In cases of repeat offenses for animals subjected to cruelty, neglect or abandonment, the A.C.O. may have such animal adopted to another owner, thereby extinguishing all property rights of the existing owner, provided the A.C.O. serves written notice upon the existing owner, informing him of the A.C.O.’s intent to have said animal adopted by another owner, and giving the existing owner three (3) business days to 1) declare his intent to maintain ownership of the animal and to object to the adoption, and 2) pay all impoundment, boarding, and veterinary costs, up to the date of the owner’s declaration of intent to maintain his ownership of his animal. This intent must be stated in writing, signed by the animal’s owner, and delivered to the Animal shelter keeping the animal. The statement of intent and payment of fees and costs will serve to stop any animal adoption proceedings.

ARTICLE 7: WILD OR EXOTIC ANIMALS; GUARD DOGS

7-1 KEEPING OF WILD OR EXOTIC ANIMALS

- A. No person shall keep an animal of a species prohibited or protected by Title 50, Code of Federal Regulations, or by the State of New Mexico, 17-3-22 NMSA 1978, as amended.
- B. No person shall keep an animal which is wild, vicious dangerous, noxious, or naturally inclined to do harm, except in a zoological park, veterinary hospital, animal shelter, public laboratory, circus, amusement show, educational facility, for which adequate protection devices shall be provided to prevent any animals from escaping or injuring the public.

- C. Any provisions of this Ordinance to the contrary notwithstanding, no person shall keep a wild or exotic animal in such a manner as to constitute a likelihood of harm to the animal or other animals, to human beings, to the property of human beings, or which constitutes a public or private nuisance.

7-2 LICENSING WILD OR EXOTIC ANIMALS

Any provision of this Ordinance to the contrary notwithstanding, no person shall receive, own, or keep a wild or exotic animal within the limits of the County, without first applying for and receiving from the A.C.O. an annual permit to do so. The applicant must provide evidence of knowledge and facilities for the care and feeding of the animal involved. The Animal Control Officer is permitted to enter the premises of the permittee hereunder at any reasonable time for the purpose of inspection or reinspection to determine compliance with this ordinance. The A.C.O. may deny, revoke, or suspend a permit [or failure to comply with this Section. This permit shall be renewed annually, at a cost set forth in Appendix A.

7-3 ANIMALS USED FOR ENTERTAINMENT

Owners of animals used in exhibits, circuses, rodeos, and animals otherwise used for entertainment purposes must comply with all provisions of this Ordinance.

7-4 GUARD DOGS

Anyone using or keeping a dog for the sole purpose of guarding a property, and neither as a pet nor for hunting uses, must follow the restrictions set forth in Section 7-4, in addition to all other applicable provisions of this Ordinance:

- A. The enclosure surrounding the property protected by a guard dog must be secure at all times so as to prevent the dog from running at large, unless the owner complies with Section 5-2A.
- B. If chained, the animal must be located within 10 feet of the entrance of the building to be guarded and chained in such manner as set forth in Sections 5-2A 1 through 6. (Chained Animals).
- C. The owner of the guard dog shall post warning signs prominently on all sides of the premises and on the entryway to the premises, stating that a guard dog is on the premises.

ARTICLE 8: DEAD ANIMALS

8-1 DISPOSAL

- A. Within twenty-four (24) hours of death of an animal, the owner shall dispose of the carcass by burial at least three (3) feet underground in a suitable location, or by other means approved by an A.C.O.
- B. At his discretion, the A.C.O. is authorized to pick up and dispose of all dead animals immediately upon discovery or notification.

- C. The A.C.O. is not responsible for pick up or disposal of domestic livestock or wild animals, or animals killed on interstate highways, state, or county roads.
- D. At the request of the owner, an A.C.O. may, at his own discretion, given the constraints of County resources, pick up the carcass of dogs and cats weighing less than twenty (20) pounds from the homes of the owners who are residents of the County. The fee for this service is set forth in Appendix A.
- E. An animal carcass picked up under this Section of the Ordinance shall be disposed of by the County in whatever way is determined to be the most feasible to protect the health, safety, and welfare of the residents of the County and in such a manner as to minimize expense to the Animal Control Division and the County.

ARTICLE 9: TAMPERING

9-1 BREAKING INTO ENCLOSURE

Any person who shall in any manner break into or aid, directly or indirectly, in breaking into the enclosure in which any animal is impounded or kept under authority of an A.C.O. or Sheriff’s deputy shall be guilty of a petty misdemeanor.

9-2 HINDERING AN A.C.O.

Any person who shall willfully or intentionally hinder or obstruct any Animal Control Officer in the discharge of his official duty under the provisions of this Ordinance shall be guilty of a petty misdemeanor.

ARTICLE 10: REGULATIONS FOR KENNELS, GROOMING PARLORS, PET SHOPS, PET SHELTERS AND HOBBY BREEDERS

10-1 PERMITS; STANDARDS; REVOCATION OF PERMITS

- A. It shall be unlawful to keep, maintain, harbor or possess upon the premises of any one household or upon the premises of any one business property more than ten (10) dogs of licensing age or ten (10) cats unless the owner or person in charge thereof has obtained a permit to operate a kennel from the Animal Control Division.
- B. The cost of obtaining a kennel permit is set forth in Appendix A. Each kennel license must be renewed annually and a new permit fee paid.
- C. No kennel permit shall be issued until an inspection of the kennel by an A.C.O. finds compliance with this Ordinance has been completed.
- D. The A.C.O. is authorized to inspect, at any reasonable hour, any kennel holding a permit to operate. By accepting a kennel permit, the permittee is agreeing to surrender the kennel for inspection at a reasonable time upon the request of an A.C.O.

- E. All kennels, as defined herein, shall, in addition to the other provisions of this Ordinance, comply with the minimum standards of this Section. Failure to meet these standards shall be grounds for denial of a permit or revocation of a permit. The following standards must be met:
  - 1. animal enclosures must be provided which allow adequate protection against all weather extremes. Floors of buildings, runs and walls must be constructed with an impervious material to permit proper cleaning and disinfecting.
  - 2. building temperatures shall be maintained at a comfortable level. Adequate ventilation and adequate lighting shall be maintained at all times.
  - 3. each animal shall have sufficient space to stand up, lie down and turn around without touching the sides or tops of cages.
  - 4. cages are to be of material construction that permit adequate cleaning and sanitizing.
  - 5. cages are to be of an impervious, washable material, radiantly heated, and shall have a resting board or some kind of bedding.
  - 6. rooms shall provide an adequate exercise area and protection from the weather. Runs shall have an impervious surface.
  - 7. all animal quarters and rooms are to be kept clean, dry and in a sanitary condition.
  - 8. animal food shall be free from contamination, shall be wholesome, palatable and of sufficient quantity and nutritive value to meet the normal daily requirements for the condition, age, and size of the animal.
  - 9. all animals shall have fresh, potable. water available at all times. Water vessels shall be mounted or secured in a manner that prevents tipping and be of a removable type.
- F. Any permit issued pursuant to this Section may be revoked if an A.C.O. has reasonable cause to believe that the standards set forth in this Section are not being met, or if the permittee or the person caring for or having control of the kenneled animals has violated any Section of this Ordinance or is in violation or any zoning, health and safety, or building ordinance relating to the keeping, care or use of any animal.

ARTICLE 11: PENALTY; GRACE PERIOD; RESTITUTION; SAVINGS CLAUSE

11-1 PENALTY CLAUSE

Any person who violates any of the provisions of this Ordinance shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and, upon conviction of violating the Ordinance, shall be punished by a fine not exceeding $500.00 and/or imprisonment for a period not exceeding six (6) months. A person may, in addition to any other penalty, be required to attend an animal training or care school/classes in the discretion of the Court. Each day this Ordinance is violated shall be considered a separate offense.

11-2 GRACE PERIOD

Any violations existing upon the effective date of this Ordinance have a grace period of thirty (30) days to permit the persons to comply with all provisions herein.

11-3 RESTITUTION

Notwithstanding any of the foregoing, in the event any animal damages property, whether public or private, or causes injury to any person or animal, and such damage or injury is found to have been an element of the violation of any provision of this Ordinance, the Magistrate Court may, at its discretion, require the defendant to make restitution within a reasonable time, to the victim of said damage or injury.

11-4 SAVINGS CLAUSE AND REPEAL PROVISION

If any of these Sections, subsections, sentences, clauses, or phrases of this Ordinance are for any reason found to be unconstitutional or invalid, the validity of the remaining portions of this Ordinance shall not thereby be affected since it is the express intent of the Board of County Commissioners to pass each section, phrase, paragraph, and word separately. Santa Fe County Resolution 1990-8 is hereby unaffected by this Ordinance. Santa Fe County Ordinances 1981-7, 1982-7, 1990-8 and Santa Fe County Resolution 1982-28 are hereby repealed.

11-5 EFFECTIVE DATE

This Ordinance will take effect on April 12, 1991.
