Procedures for Determining Candidate Ballot Positions

Primary Election

1. Preprimary Convention Candidates: Candidates designated and certified by state convention for a statewide or federal office shall be placed on the Primary Election ballot in the order of the votes received at the state convention. The candidate receiving the highest vote shall be placed first in order on the ballot, followed by the candidate receiving the next highest vote, and so on until all candidates designated for that office have been placed on the ballot, provided that the names of two or more candidates receiving an equal number of votes for designation by convention for the same office shall be placed on the Primary ballot in an order determined by lot. (1-8-43A NMSA 1978)

2. “Declaration of Candidacy” Candidates: The names of candidates who are candidates by declaration of candidacy shall be arranged on the ballot as determined by lot. The determination by lot shall be made immediately following the closing time for filing declarations of candidacy, and all candidates or their agents shall be entitled to be present at such time. If a candidate cannot be present at the time the drawing for office takes place, the candidate can designate another to draw for him. If no one appears for the candidate, the proper filing officer will draw for the candidate’s ballot position. (1-8-43B NMSA 1978)

General Election

1. Drawing for Party Position: For the General Election, a drawing for party position by political parties takes place in the Office of the Secretary of State on the first Wednesday in September (1-10-8.1 NMSA 1978, & 1.10.6 NMAC). The major political parties draw first, followed by minor parties for the subsequent positions.

2. Independent Candidates: Unaffiliated or independent candidates follow political party candidates. In the event two or more independent candidates run for the same office, their names shall be located on the ballot in alphabetical order. (1.10.6.8G NMAC)

Requirements and Instructions: NOMINATING PETITIONS

Where to obtain authorized nominating petition: Nominating petition forms are available at the Secretary of State's office in Santa Fe and in the Office of the County Clerk in each county. Persons must use a nominating petition form prescribed by the Secretary of State or use an exact reproduction of the form authorized for use by the Secretary of State. Petitions are also available online at <http://www.sos.state.nm.us>. (Section 1-2-1(B) NMSA 1978, 1-8-30(E) NMSA 1978)

When nominating petitions can be circulated: Nominating petitions may be circulated for signatures beginning October 1, 2009. (1-8-30(D) NMSA 1978)

Filling in the information at the top of each petition page: For clarity and accuracy, the general information and candidate information contained in the top one-third of the petition page should be completed in printed form or in black ballpoint pen. The top line shall list only one county.

Misdemeanor offense for knowingly circulating petition without proper information filled in at the top:

All general information and candidate information required in the top one-third of the page must be completely filled in prior to circulating. Signatures on a page will not be counted by the filing office at the time the petition is filed if all general information and candidate information in the top one-third of each page has not been completely filled in prior to circulation.

Any person knowingly circulating a nominating petition page that does not clearly show the name of the candidate, the address at which the candidate resides, the candidate's county of residence, and the office for which the candidate seeks nomination is guilty of a misdemeanor under Section 1-8-32(B) NMSA 1978.

Felony offense for knowingly altering the general or candidate information at the top of the petition page: The general information and candidate information contained in the top one-third of the petition page cannot be altered, modified or otherwise changed after the petition page has started circulating. Any person knowingly altering any of the general information or candidate information contained in the top one-third of the petition page may be guilty of falsifying information on a nominating petition under Sections 1-8-32(A) and 1-20-9(F) NMSA 1978. Knowingly falsifying any information on a nominating petition is a fourth degree felony.

In order to avoid creating an issue as to whether a particular petition page was improperly altered, it is recommended that persons filing a petition avoid the use of white-out, over-typing, strikeouts or visible erasure when filling out the top one-third of the petition page.

Only original petition pages shall be filed; reproduced copies will not be accepted or counted: At the time of filing the petition, the completed original of each petition page must be submitted to the filing officer. Reproduced copies of petition pages containing copies of the signatures and other information required of the registered voter are not permitted, and none of the signatures on that page shall be counted by the filing officer at the time the petition is filed. (1-8-34(B) NMSA 1978)

No additions or withdrawals of petition pages and signatures will be accepted after filing: All petitions shall be submitted to the filing officer at one time. The filing officer shall not accept any additional pages after the candidate has first submitted the petition to the filing officer. The filing officer shall retain all pages submitted whether the petition or signatures on the petition are counted or not. (1-8-34(A) NMSA 1978)

IMPORTANT

GROUND FOR WHICH PETITION AND SIGNATURES MAY BE REJECTED

Litigation may be filed to require rejection (see Sec. 1-8-35 NMSA 1978) of filed primary nominating petitions and signatures on various grounds, including but not limited to, proof that:

- a signature is not that of a registered voter; (1-8-31C.4 NMSA 1978)
- a signature is not that of a voter of the county named at the top of the petition; (1-8-31C.2 NMSA 1978)
- a signature is not that of a voter in the area to be represented by the office for which the person filing the nominating petition seeks to be a candidate; (1-8-31C.2 NMSA 1978)
- the person signing the petition has signed more than one petition for the same office where only one candidate is to be elected for such office (1-8-31C.3 NMSA 1978) and;
- the voter signing is not of the same political party as the candidate named in the nominating petition; (1-8-31C.1 NMSA 1978)

See also Section 1-8-31 NMSA 1978, to avoid risking disqualification through failure to file a sufficient number of qualifying signatures, the candidate should act carefully to obtain only qualified signatures.

Also, the filing officer may reject the entire Primary nominating petition if the original petition containing original signatures has not been filed, and in its place a reproduction of the petition and signatures is filed. (1-8-34B NMSA 1978)

It is recommended that the candidate obtain additional signatures. As a precaution, the candidate may find it appropriate to obtain more signatures than are required by law, in the event some of the signatures are rejected by the filing officer or are subsequently rejected by the courts.

CAMPAIGN REPORTING ACT

Sections 1-19-25 through 1-19-37 NMSA 1978

The Regulation and Disclosure of Campaign Contributions and Expenditures

Overview:

The Campaign Reporting Act provides for the public disclosure of contributions and expenditures made for a political purpose by public officials and candidates seeking or considering election to offices on a Primary, General or Statewide Special Election ballot. It provides also for registration and disclosure by political committees that contribute or expend funds for a political purpose. Disclosure is accomplished by filing reports of contributions and expenditures in election and non-election years.

The Act specifies permissible expenditures from candidates' campaign accounts, prohibits certain fundraising activities by incumbents in or candidates for a regulatory office limits the amount of anonymous and special event contributions that may be retained, and prohibits the solicitation of campaign contributions by legislators or legislative candidates and the Governor (or their agents) before, during, and after a legislative session.

Furthermore, it establishes a filing schedule for all reports and prescribes monetary penalties for failure to file timely, complete or accurate reports or statements of no activity and provides for civil and criminal enforcement. Moreover, it prohibits the placement of a candidate's name on an election ballot, or the issuance of a certificate of nomination or election, for failure to comply with the reporting requirements or failure to pay any monetary penalty imposed.

solicitation expenses of a political committee that are paid by an organization that sponsors the committee.

Definition of “Public Official”:

“Public official” means a person elected to an office in an election covered by the Campaign Reporting Act or a person appointed to an office that is subject to an election covered by that act.

Definition of “Reporting Individual”:

“Reporting individual” means every public official, candidate or treasurer of a campaign committee and every treasurer of a political committee.

Specific information that must be reported:

Individuals or entities who contribute $250 or more, candidates must itemize each contribution and expenditure and provide the full name and address of each contributor or payee, unless the contribution was made anonymously. In addition, if an individual or entity contributes $250 or more in the aggregate in either the Primary or General Election, the candidate must report the occupation or type of business engaged in by the individual or entity. (1-19-31A NMSA 1978)

Unpaid debts:

Each report shall specify the amount of each unpaid debt and the identity of the persons to whom the debt is owed.

Anonymous contributions:

No single anonymous contribution may be accepted and deposited into a campaign account in excess of $100. Furthermore, a statewide candidate may not legally accept, in the aggregate, more than two-thousand dollars ($2,000) in anonymous contributions during a Primary, General or Statewide Special Election. Similarly, non-statewide candidates may only accept (in the aggregate) anonymous contributions totaling $500 per election.

Unidentifiable Cash Contributions from Special Events:

Cash contributions received at or from special events that are unidentifiable as to a specific contributor are not subject to the limits placed on anonymous contributions if the special event raises, after expenses, no more than $1,000 in unidentifiable contributions. (1-19-35 NMSA 1978)

- A special event includes a barbecue or similar event where a ticket costs $15 or less. A coffee, tea or similar reception is also classified as a special event.

Campaign funds; limitation on use:

It is unlawful for any candidate or his agent to make an expenditure of contributions received, except for the following purposes:

1. expenditures of the campaign;
2. expenditures of legislators that are reasonably related to performing the duties of the office held, including mail, telephone and travel expenditures to serve constituents, but excluding personal and legislative session living expenses;
3. donations to the state general fund;
4. donation to an organization to which a federal income tax deduction would be permitted under Subparagraph (A) of Paragraph (1) of Subsection (b) of Section 170 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986; as amended;

5. expenditures to eliminate the campaign debt of the candidate for the office sought or expenditures incurred by the candidate when seeking election to another public office covered by the Campaign Reporting Act;
6. donations to a political party or to another candidate seeking election to public office; or
7. disbursements to return unused funds pro rata to the contributors if no campaign debt exists.

Section 1-19-33 NMSA 1978 exclusion of certain candidates from reporting; statement of exception, was repealed during the 2009 legislative session.

If a candidate has not received any contributions and has not made any expenditures since the candidate's last report was filed with the proper filing officer, the candidate shall only be required to file a "STATEMENT OF NO ACTIVITY," which shall not be required to be notarized, in lieu of a full report when that report would otherwise be due and shall not be required to file a full report until the next required filing date occurring after an expenditure is made or a contribution received.

Proper filing officer for filing reports of expenditures and contributions or statements of no activity is the Secretary of State for all candidates and public officials.

Reporting Dates: (Refer to page 34 for the 2010 Reporting Schedule)

1. Candidates must file an initial report.
2. Candidates may choose to file a statement of no activity if they did not receive any contributions or have not made any expenditures since the last report was filed.
2. Reports required by this section shall be filed electronically by all reporting individuals.
3. Reporting individuals may apply to the Secretary of State for exemption from electronic filing in case of "hardship," which shall be defined by the Secretary of State.
4. All reports are due on the following dates as stated in the 2010 Filing Schedule unless a final report is filed.

Candidates May Stop Filing Reports ONLY After Filing a Final Report: (Candidates may file a final report at any time using the Candidate Electronic Filing System.) Except for candidates who file a statement of no activity, each reporting individual shall file a report of expenditures and contributions annually pursuant to the filing schedule set forth in this section, regardless of whether any expenditures were made or contributions were received during the reporting period. Reports shall be required until the reporting individual delivers a report to the proper filing officer stating that:

(1) there are no outstanding campaign debts;

(2) all money has been expended in accordance with the provisions of Section 1-19-29.1 NMSA 1978; and

(3) the bank account has been closed.

A judge subject to a nonpartisan retention election or a candidate for judicial office shall solicit or accept campaign funds and return unused funds in accordance with the provisions of the Code of Judicial Conduct. Please refer to Sections 21-700 and 21-800 of the New Mexico Code of Judicial Conduct.

The Secretary of State shall at all times seek to ensure voluntary compliance with the provisions of the Campaign Reporting Act. If the Secretary of State determines that a provision of that act for which a penalty may be imposed has been violated, the Secretary of State shall by written notice set forth the violation and the fine imposed and inform the reporting individual that he has ten (10) working days from the date of the letter to correct the matter and to provide a written explanation, under penalty of perjury, stating any reason why the violation occurred. If a timely explanation is filed and the Secretary of State determines that good cause exists to waive the fine imposed, the Secretary of State may by a written notice of final action partially or fully waive any fine imposed for any late, incomplete, or false report or statement of exception. (1-19-34.4 NMSA 1978)

1-19-35. Reports and statements; late filing penalty; failure to file.

A. Except for the report required to be filed and delivered the Thursday prior to the election and any supplemental report, as required in Paragraph (5) of Subsection B of Section 1-19-29 NMSA 1978, that is due prior to the election, and subject to the provisions of Section 1-19-34.4 NMSA 1978, if a statement of no activity or a report of expenditures and contributions contains false or incomplete information or is filed after any deadline imposed by the Campaign Reporting Act, the responsible reporting individual or political committee, in addition to any other penalties or remedies prescribed by the Election Code, shall be liable for and shall pay to the secretary of state fifty dollars ($50.00) per day for each regular working day after the time required by the Campaign Reporting Act for the filing of statements of no activity or reports of expenditures and contributions until the complete or true statement or report is filed, up to a maximum of five thousand dollars ($5,000).

B. If any reporting individual files a false, intentionally incomplete or late report of expenditures and contributions due on the Thursday prior to the election, the reporting individual or political committee shall be liable and pay to the secretary of state five hundred dollars ($500) for the first working day and fifty dollars ($50.00) for each subsequent working day after the time required for the filing of the report until the true and complete report is filed, up to a maximum of five thousand dollars ($5,000).

C. If a reporting individual fails to file or files a late supplemental report of expenditures and contributions as required in Paragraph (5) of Subsection B of Section 1-19-29 NMSA 1978, the reporting individual or political committee shall be liable for and pay to the secretary of state a penalty equal to the amount of each contribution received or pledged after the Tuesday before the election that was not timely filed.

D. All sums collected for the penalty shall be deposited in the state general fund. A report or statement of no activity shall be deemed timely filed only if it is received by the proper filing officer by the date and time prescribed by law.

E. Any candidate who fails or refuses to file a report of expenditures and contributions or statement of no activity or to pay a penalty imposed by the secretary of state as required by the Campaign Reporting Act shall not, in addition to any other penalties provided by law:

(1) have his name printed upon the ballot if the violation occurs before and through the final date for the withdrawal of candidates; or

(2) be issued a certificate of nomination or election, if the violation occurs after the final date for withdrawal of candidates or after the election, until the candidate satisfies all reporting requirements of the Campaign Reporting Act and pays all penalties owed.

F. Any candidate who loses an election and who failed or refused to file a report of expenditures and contributions or a statement of no activity or to pay a penalty imposed by the secretary of state as required by the Campaign Reporting Act shall not be, in addition to any other penalties provided by law, permitted to file a declaration of candidacy or nominating petition for any future election until the candidate satisfies all reporting requirements of that act and pays all penalties owed.

Written Complaints Alleging Violations to the Campaign Reporting Act:

Any person who reasonably believes that a provision of the Act has been violated, or is about to be violated, may file a written complaint. The complaint must state specific facts. If a determination is made that a violation has, or is about to occur, an initial inquiry may be conducted, thereafter, the matter may be referred for further investigation or enforcement to the attorney general or a district attorney.

The New Mexico Legislature passed the Voter Action Act in 2003 for those candidates seeking public funding for a seat for the Public Regulation Commission. During the 2007 Legislative Special Session the "Voter Action Act" was amended. The provisions of this amended act expanded public funding of elections to the judicial branch of government. In Judicial races the funding will be available only for contested Primaries and General Elections for the Court of Appeals and Justice of the Supreme Court. As such, judicial retention elections are not eligible for this fund.

The New Mexico Secretary of State staff will be meeting with candidates and their campaign treasurer to discuss public financing for those seeking office for the Public Regulation Commission, Districts 2, 4, 5 and statewide judicial elected offices. You may contact Paula Templeton at 800.477.3632 to arrange for an appointment.
