Services listed in this Resource Directory, to the best of our knowledge, are limited to agencies that have a non-profit status or accept Medicaid. Inclusion is this directory is not an endorsement. Clients are urged to formulate their individual criteria for selection of service providers.

You need health insurance.
Here is how to find health insurance that meets your needs and fits your budget.

Medicaid, also known as Centennial Care.
Centennial Care is the name of the New Mexico Medicaid program. Even if you have not been eligible for free healthcare under Medicaid in the past, you may be eligible now under the higher income guidelines. To apply, call the Medicaid Expansion hotline at 1-855-637-6574 or apply online at www.yes.state.nm.us. You can also enroll in person at the Income Support Division office, 39B Plaza La Prensa, Santa Fe, NM 87504, Telephone: (505) 476-9200.

New Mexico Health Insurance Exchange, also known as BeWellNM.
This health coverage can be very low cost. You may apply for coverage, compare plans, and enroll online at www.bewellnm.com or by calling 1-855-996-6449

SANTA FE COUNTY HEALTH CARE ASSISTANCE PROGRAM

If you live in Santa Fe County, don’t qualify for Medicaid, and meet certain income guidelines, the Santa Fe County Health Care Assistance Program will reimburse approved providers for your care. The program is offered only through approved primary care, substance abuse, mental health, and dental providers and is not a substitute for insurance. The program does not cover hospital care. It is open to County residents regardless of immigration status. Income requirements vary according to household size. For example, for a single person, the cutoff is $36,600/year, and for a family of four, it is $52,250/year. For more information call: Santa Fe County Community Services Department at 505-992-9849.
